What's the Rush
Dorrie Rifkin

Do you love being creative but need help getting started? Do you know that you want to paint, but have not found the time? This watercolor painting class will cover equally the steps of design, drawing, and painting. Beginners and intermediates welcome.

Participants will learn to create strong compositions, execute a solid underlying sketch, draw typography, and paint effectively. Expect to learn while having fun, through demonstration, exercises, and individual instruction and encouragement. Beginning and continuing students will work from photographs provided for them, still life, or their own imaginations.
